25th Anniversary Book Launch: Unlocking Imagination

By Life Community Services Society (LCSS)

LCSS celebrates its 25th anniversary this year. To commemorate this milestone, LCSS will be launching a compendium of real life stories about children from vulnerable backgrounds whose lives are transformed through mentoring. These mentors help the children unlock their imaginations and achieve their aspirations.

This book is suitable for anyone curious about mentoring and the role it plays in child development.

YRF Charity Golf

By Yellow Ribbon Fund (YRF)

The YRF Charity Golf is happening in Mar 2022! Proceeds from the event will be channeled towards rehabilitation and reintegration programmes to support inmates, ex-offenders and their families.

For more information, please contact Cheryl Choo (cheryl_choo@yellowribbon.gov.sg) or Faith Yu (faith_yu@yellowribbon.gov.sg).

Happy New Year!

We are excited to launch our inaugural CARE Network (CN) Insider 2022. Together with CN partners, this newsletter brings aftercare-related news to you on a quarterly basis. We hope this will inspire you to forge stronger bonds within the community to further this meaningful cause of reintegration for ex-offenders and their families.

About CARE Network

The Community Action for the Rehabilitation of Ex-Offenders (CARE) Network was established in 2000 to coordinate aftercare rehabilitation and reintegration services. The Network connects community partners together to provide seamless throughcare support, from incare to aftercare, for ex-offenders.

Family Violence Awareness Training

By Ministry of Social and Family Development (MSF)

The FVAT provides a basic understanding of family violence (FV), including the different types and forms of abuse and neglect. Participants will also learn about the impact of FV on parties involved, the systems and legislations in Singapore for family protection work, how to intervene safely and the available help channels. This workshop aims to equip participants in the early detection of FV cases for appropriate response. FVAT participants would also be introduced to the Break-The-Silence (BTS) campaign, aimed at raising public awareness of FV.

Register your interest to have the FVAT workshop conducted at your agency and join in the BTS campaign! Submit an enquiry here: <http://go.gov.sg/fvat>.

Homelessness Learning Forum 2021

By New Hope Community Services (NHCS)

New Hope Community Services held its first ever virtual Homelessness Learning Forum (HLF) in partnership with the Singapore Association of Social Workers. Titled 'Rethinking Homelessness, Fostering Partnerships', the forum touched on the complex issues surrounding homelessness, practical help for the homeless and the importance of focusing on their dignity and personal voice.

Today, New Hope runs four shelters and various programmes which support the long-term growth of their clients. One shelter remains dedicated to male ex-offenders, and offers residents case management and life skills training.

Yellow Ribbon Community Art & Poetry Exhibition

By the Yellow Ribbon Project (YRP)

The Yellow Ribbon Community Art and Poetry Exhibition (YRCAPE) launched its first-ever virtual exhibition from 30 Nov to 31 Dec 2021. The 14th edition of YRCAPE marks the YRP's inaugural partnership with ex-offender art support group CANVAS, and second collaboration with Sing Lit Station.

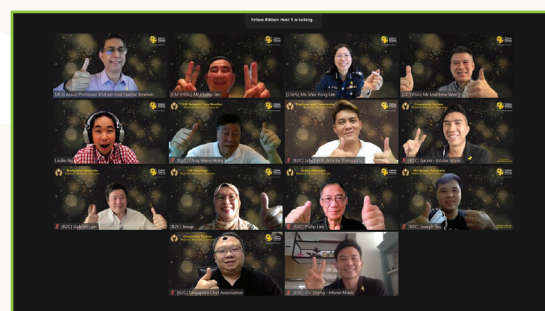

Themed A Garden of Possibilities, YRCAPE 2021 aimed to convey existing and former inmate artists' hopes and desires to change, and their hard work and determination to turn their darkest moments into endless possibilities. The exhibition showcased over 90 pieces of art and poetry created by 29 inmates and artwork 10 CANVAS artists. Visit the YRCAPE website @ www.yellowribbonart.sg.

Yellow Ribbon Awards

By Yellow Ribbon Singapore & Singapore Prison Service

Minister for Law and Home Affairs K Shanmugam launched the inaugural YR Awards on 8 Dec 2021, honoring 577 employers, community partners, ex-offenders and volunteers for their contributions towards championing second chances for inmates and ex-offenders. In his opening speech, Minister said that the recipients of the YR Awards showed how acts of kindness could change the lives of ex-offenders and inspire them to do the same for others.
